

I do believe that I should have some privacy with the yse of my telephone. No one should have the RIGHT to disturb me because they want to see me something when I have so stated I so not want to be bothered.